Please note that lodging is given based on a first-come, first-served policy, and that special lodging requests cannot be guaranteed by ALOM or Seven Springs. The best way to ensure that your municipality or company receives their lodging choices is to reserve your room as soon as possible. The main hotel did sell out in 2019!

If the main hotel lodging should become completely booked, Seven Springs will automatically move guests to the condominiums, which will be given as lodging at the conference block rate. On the Food & Lodging Reservation form each guest can elect if they would voluntarily lodge in a condo should that option be available. This is not a guarantee, but an effort to accommodate as many guests as possible.
